WALKER PRIZES.

BOSTON SOCIETY OF NATURAL HISTORY.

By the provisions of the late Dr. WILLIAM J. WALKER's foundation, two prizes are annually offered by the Boston Society of Natural History for the best memoirs, written in the English language, on subjects proposed by a Committee appointed by the Council. For the best memoir presented, a prize of sixty dollars may be awarded; if, however, the memoir be one of marked merit, the amount may be increased, at the discretion of the Committee, to one hundred dollars. For the memoir next in value a sum not exceeding fifty dollars may be given; but neither of these prizes is to be awarded unless the papers under consideration are deemed of adequate merit.

Memoirs offered in competition for these prizes must be forwarded on or before April 1st of the year for which the prize is offered, prepaid and addressed

*"Boston Society of Natural History, for the Committee on the Walker Prizes,
Boston, Mass."*

Each memoir must be accompanied by a sealed envelope inclosing the author's name and subscribed by a motto corresponding to one borne by the manuscript.

Subject for 1879: "The Structure, History, and Development of some Cryptogamous Plant."

BOSTON, May, 1878.
